Questions from Firms and TRS Responses posted on September 1, 2022

1. Do you know how many hours of incident response you would like to have available for this project?

TRS Response: TRS did not list a specific number of hours in the RFP. Hours of effort will depend on the circumstances of the incident. Proposers should, as necessary, identify hours deemed appropriate by the proposer.

2. Confirm the exact time the response is due by on September 7, 2022.

TRS Response: As noted in the question, TRS, by memorandum dated August 26, 2022, extended the proposal due date to September 7, 2022, because the original date in the RFP is a federal and state holiday. The other provisions of the RFP were unchanged, including the 4 p.m. ET deadline.
